

Schedule of day surgery for adult inguinal hernia mm/dd	first hospital visit	second hospital visit	pre-operation day	operation day in the morning	the same day afternoon	after surgical consultation plan and goal	The patient understands the hernia and treatment.	The patient understand the process of admission.	The patient understands the duration of fasting.	The patient faces the operation calmly The patient can claim his/her pain, if he feels any pain after surgery.	The patient understands the process of recovery.

treatment, medication				Please come to the hospital by 8:45. We give you a drip infusion. We give you antibiotics during the operation. You may have to wear an O2 mask after surgery.	You can be discharged after checkup Maybe late afternoon or evening We prescribe you some pain killer tablets.	Please visit our clinic 1 week after the surgery.
Examination	X-ray, Blood exam., Urine exam., ECG			X-ray after operation in the operation room	You can go home by foot, taxi, train or airplane.
activity and rest	no precaution			You can walk after the anesthetic wears off. A nurse will assist you.	You can eat dinner.	You can work hard maybe 1 week after the surgery.
food	no precaution		Please don't have any food and drink after 9 p.m.	No food no drink You can have liquids 3 hours after surgery.	You can take shower after discharge but you can dip your wound in hot bath water 1 week later.	There are no restrictions about food after discharge.
sanitation requirement	no precaution		Please take a bath.
urination	no precaution			We may set you a urethral catheter.
informed consent	The doctor gives you some information about the hernia treatment. Please sign the letter of consent. 	Please visit an anesthesiologist. Please let the anesthesiologist know your past history and medication.	Necessities on admission Teijitai (Japanese pant) one bath towel, 2 or 3 towels toilet set a pair of slippers * except bedclothing	A pharmacist will give you some information about medication.	Please take a tablet of pain killer when you feel any pain. You can take a pain killer every 3 hours. You can take aspirin, warfarin or others from the second discharge A nurse will give you some information about after your	