

Schedule of day surgery for child inguinal hernia

mm/dd	/	/	/	/	/
	first hospital visit	second hospital visit	pre-operation day	operation day		after surgical consultation day plan & goal	The patient understands the hernia and treatment.	The patient understands the process of admission.	The patient understands duration of fasting.	The patient faces the operation calmly. The patient can claim his/her pain, if he feels any pain after surgery.
treatment, medication				Please come to the hospital by 8:45. We give you a drip infusion. 	You can be discharged after checkup late in the afternoon. We prescribe you some antibiotics tablets. 	Please visit our clinic 1 week after the surgery.
Examination	X-ray, Blood exam., Urine exam., ECG activity and rest	no precaution				Please stay in bed until discharge.	no need to stay still in bed food		<4 years old	The patient can eat food until 2 a.m..	The patient can drink water until 5 a.m.. no precaution	4~13	The patient can eat food until 0 a.m..	The patient can drink water until 4 a.m..	You can have liquids 3 hours after hygiene requirements	no precaution		Please take a bath 		You can take a shower after discharge but you can dip your wound in hot bath water 1 week later.
urination	no precaution				We ask you if you can urinate.
informed consent	The doctor gives parents some information about the hernia treatment. Please sign the letter of consent. 	Please visit an anestheologist. Please let the anestheologist know	Necessities on admission one bath towel, 2 or 3 towels * except bedclothing			